----- ASSIGNMENT -----

TASK

- Respond to at least TWO (2) classmates' blog posts each week. You are required to leave at least two thoughtful comments for posts written by other people in HIS 3626.
 - "Going beyond the call" >> engage with more than 2 classmates, or respond to comments left on your blog posts
 - Please remember: The best bloggers are those who have something to say, not those who simply want to fill up space on their sites. In other words: quality over quantity.
- Each blog post you write must have a minimum of 350 words. Although there is no maximum, try to keep your posts under 600 words.
- Observe proper etiquette and professionalism. Be respectful and considerate of others' opinions – especially if they differ from your own.
 - Note: Life happens. Not every week is easy to handle. As such, there are at least 12+ weeks of blogging, but you only have to participate in 6 weeks. This means you have 6+ weeks you can take off without penalty. Please notify the instructor when you plan to take a week off

EACH WEEK ...

- Blog posts are due no later than Mondays before we discuss the week's readings on Tuesdays and Thursdays
- ⇒ Peer comments are due no later than Tuesdays before we include comments in our discussions on Thursdays
